Living Streets' London office is located at the south end of Brick Lane.

The information provided below is meant as a guide. For further information and help planning your journey please visit the Transport for London website – www.tfl.gov.uk

Access

The office has step-free access, an accessible lift and toilet. However, step-free access is via a side entrance which needs to be unlocked by a member of staff. We therefore recommend that you contact us to discuss your access needs prior to your visit so that we can arrange for someone to meet you upon your arrival.
