

WOW – the year-round walk to school challenge

Badge competition 2019: terms and conditions

The competition is managed by Living Streets (The Pedestrians' Association), herein known as Living Streets. Registered Charity No. 1108448 (England and Wales) and SC039808 (Scotland), Company Limited by Guarantee (England & Wales), Company Registration No. 05368409.

Every primary school across the United Kingdom is eligible to participate in the badge design competition. There will be 11 individual winners who will be awarded a trophy and a year's supply of WOW resources for their school.

All information detailing how to enter this competition forms part of these terms and conditions. It is a condition of entry that all terms and conditions are adhered to. Submission of an entry will be taken to mean acceptance of these terms and conditions.

How to enter:

Step 1: Teachers should complete their school details on the badge design template and then hand out copies of the entry form to all pupils to complete. Forms may be found on our website:

<https://www.livingstreets.org.uk/badgedesigncompetition2019>

Step 2: Teachers should collate all pupils' entries and choose the three best designs to enter in the competition.

Step 3: Each school should then send their best three designs to: Walk to School, Living Streets, 4th Floor, Universal House, 88-94 Wentworth Street, London, E1 7SA or scan and email the entries to walktoschool@livingstreets.org.uk, with the subject header "Badge competition entry 2019".

Submitted designs cannot be returned.

Free entry:

There is no charge for entering the competition, no money is exchanged.

Competition closing date:

All entries must be received by Friday, 15 March 2019. Late, incomplete, lost, damaged or corrupt entries will not be accepted.

Prizes:

There will be 11 winners who will receive a WOW trophy, a year's supply of WOW resources for their school (up to £500), a school gate banner, and have their design made into over 400,000 badges. The prizes are valid for the academic year 2019-2020 only.

Living Streets Project Funded Schools – Prizes

As an existing WOW school, taking part via direct funding from Living Streets, winning schools will receive:

One WOW goody bag which includes:

- One WOW trophy
- One WOW school gate banner
- 30 Strider badges
- Certificate for the winning pupil
- £10 book token for the winning pupil
- Winning WOW badge for the winning pupil
- Gate event or assembly to be confirmed by your Living Streets contact
- Schools also receive a bespoke press release prepared for by Living Streets to be released to coincide with the WOW badge month it relates to.

Value of resources £100 (excluding assembly time and press release).

There are no runner up prizes.

The prizes described are available at the date of publication. All prizes are non-transferable and cannot be exchanged or changed. There are no cash alternatives.

Events may occur that render the competition itself or the awarding of the prize impossible due to reasons beyond the control of Living Streets and accordingly Living Streets may at its absolute discretion vary or amend the promotion and the entrant agrees that no liability shall attach to the promoter as a result thereof.

Entry restrictions:

Every primary school in the whole of the United Kingdom is eligible to enter, regardless of whether they already participate in Living Streets' WOW – the year-round walk to school challenge.

If the judges consider that no school merits the award of a prize, the prize will not be awarded. The competition is not open to employees or volunteers of Living Streets, their families, or anyone else directly associated with the competition.

Only complete competition entries will be valid for judging purposes. Only one entry will be accepted per pupil. Entries should be original designs and not breach any copyright law.

Entry conditions:

Living Streets has the right to use content for promotional purposes for the duration of three years.

Living Streets has the right to display/publish content by means of the Living Streets' website, social media channels, print and press.

Living Streets has the right to contact the winner to discuss further use of the submission for the duration of three years.

Only complete competition entries will be valid for judging purposes and any material sent in as part of a competition entry cannot be returned to the entrant.

By entering you are confirming that you are not submitting any offensive content. Should it be deemed as inappropriate your entry will be removed from the competition.

The designs should be no larger than the templates provided and should not include any photographic images or representations of people. Designs should be hand drawn only.

Judging criteria:

The designs will be judged on creativity in line with the theme "Inventions that changed the world!" and the suitability of designs to be made into badges for manufacture.

Independence of the judging:

The winning submission will be selected by a panel of judges from Living Streets. Judging will be independently supervised; judges will have no personal connection with any of the participating schools. The judges' decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into on their decision.

Winner notification:

The winner will be notified by email, post or telephone within two months after the deadline for entries (15 March 2019). If the winner cannot be contacted or is not available or does not want the prize, the judges reserve the right to select another winner from the eligible entries that were received before the closing date.

Promoter's name and address:
